

EARN while you LEARN

Become A Driver Instructor

Canadian PRODRIVERS Inc. specialists in Driving Instructor Training is pleased to announce our partnership with Fanshawe College in London.

This course exceeds minimum MTO requirements, and includes courses in the Highway Traffic Act, defensive driving and collision scene management, designed specifically for driving instructors, as well as, a program that teaches students how to share the road with trucks. Driving school ethics and most importantly, our life saving patented course in Prevention and Intervention, is specifically designed to teach the driving instructor special techniques on controlling the novice learner and the vehicle from the passenger seat in crisis situations.

Fanshawe's course is divided into two parts; both parts must be taken consecutively in order to graduate. This two part, full time program runs Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 - 10:30 and Saturday morning from 8:30-1:30. The course cost includes all your books, all the above courses, your in-car training, paper, pens, etc and it even includes GST.

Upon successful completion of this course you will be issued an Ontario Ministry of Transportation Driving Instructor licence that will allow you to teach driving in Ontario for compensation.

Imagine a job that fits your life style! Independent, challenging, helpful and people orientated. Get a solid foundation to your new independent lifestyle. This is your opportunity to get qualified right here in Southern Ontario, without having the time and expense of driving and staying in Toronto.
